

Persian Spire™ Parrotia

(Parrotia persica 'JF Columnar' PP 24951)

A uniquely narrow cultivar that's a perfect fit for courtyards, containers, rooftop gardens, beneath utility lines, and other confined planting spaces. Mature height and spread of this diminutive selection is 25' x 10'. Refined foliage emerges purple and matures to green with purple-tinted margins that linger into the summer months. Fall color is a bright medley of orange, red and yellow, with burgundy highlights.
